WHAT KATIE'S CLIENTS SAY

“Katie is brilliant to work with because she goes on the journey alongside you – she understands you & what will work best for your family”

“Katie is fantastic, focused on what we can achieve & has really made us understand how our money can work for us”

Katie brings intelligence and empathy to her role as an enable.me strategic financial coach – not to mention the energy of a category-5 hurricane!

She prides herself on always being the hardest worker in the room – and when she applies that work ethic to your financial situation, there will be no stopping you.

Katie has more than 20 years of experience working in New Zealand, Europe and the US across, accounting, investment banking and consulting firms.

But it's in changing the lives of Kiwis where Katie has found her calling – she loves working with people from all walks of life to help them unlock their financial potential.

It's no exaggeration to say Katie's clients wax lyrical about her, their one complaint is they wish they'd met her 10 years earlier!

Katie strives to be the kind of financial coach you'd recommend to all your nearest and dearest – and that's exactly what her clients do.
