WHAT NADINE'S CLIENTS SAY

"I enjoyed being able to talk about my goals and budget without judgment. The possibility of having someone coach me through the stages of reaching my goal is exciting"

"I found Nadine very friendly and down-to-earth and feel very encouraged after our meeting. There was no financial jargon and she was completely honest with me - in a positive and non-judgmental manner"

Nadine spent the first 12 years of her career as a business journalist, hosting TVNZ's morning business news show and later 'Breakfast'.

There, she made it her mission to make finance issues accessible to everyone, with a knack for making complex topics easy to understand.

Now a financial adviser, Nadine's ambition remains to empower people with the knowledge and confidence to make informed financial decisions. Her journalistic skill of rapidly absorbing information and distilling it down into what's most important translates well to financial advice.

Having long been a client of enable.me, she can personally attest to the power of working with a financial coach.

Nadine is also a daily financial commentator on Today FM and remains a freelance contributor to TV3's nightly 7pm show, 'The Project'.
