Dominic Lehmann

Financial Adviser

As an avid sailor and ocean lover, Dominic understands the importance of adjusting your approach to harness the prevailing wind.

His superpower is his ability to think critically to uncover solutions that help his clients transform their finances whatever the weather, and set sail for a better financial future.

Dom's easy-going demeanour helps clients feel at ease and open-up, allowing him to understand their needs quickly.

His diverse background in lending and sales and property management, paired with his experience in competitive sport contributes to the resilience, discipline and analytical skills which he harnesses to help clients achieve their financial goals.

Born in the city of sails, Auckland, you'll find Dom spending his spare time on the water in his kayak or sailboat.

WHAT DOMINIC'S CLIENTS SAY

"Dom creates a comfortable and welcoming environment immediately making me feel at ease to open up about my finances."

"My experience working with Dom has been enjoyable and eye-opening. I found myself not only grasping the intricacies of budgeting and investing with newfound clarity but also feeling empowered to take control of my financial future."
