

WHAT KIRSTY'S CLIENTS SAY

"Kirsty's knowledge and experience was very evident, and I felt like I was in safe hands."

"I really liked the level of detail that Kirsty was able to provide about the process and likely scenarios."

"I was really happy with my session with Kirsty. I loved the number crunching she did which gave me a clear overview of my situation. She explained things clearly and used plain language which helped me understand the potential next steps."

STRATEGIC COACH

Kirsty Healey

Financial Adviser

BA in Economics from Massey University

Kirsty has spent 25 years developing her remarkable skillset across various banking institutions and SMEs, including Countrywide Bank, National Bank, ANZ National, Westpac Private Bank, Assetwise, and iFindProperty.

Driven by a passion for helping others, Kirsty specialises in wealth creation through property investment, drawing from her entrepreneurial mindset and extensive experience as a property investor and infill property developer.

Kirsty believes in continuous growth and the power of good money habits, combining her broad skillset and wealth of experience to empower her clients towards financial success, and supporting them on their journey with her dynamic energy and tenacious enthusiasm.

When she's not helping her clients master their finances, Kirsty finds tranquillity in her rural Clevedon home, enjoying yoga, cooking, and leisurely beach walks with her partner and English pointer.

Kirsty has spent her professional career mastering the art of property investment and creating the foundations of success. Now she's ready to help you create yours.
