WHAT NADINE'S CLIENTS SAY

"I really don't know what we would do without her. My only negative would be that - I wished we had done this sooner with her."

"Nadine is awesome, she's lovely, easy to talk to and explains everything incredibly well. She is an absolute star."

"We look forward to the meetings as they motivate us for the coming months. Having Nadine as our coach has been wonderful, so much knowledge!"

Nadine's career-long mission — first as a financial journalist and broadcaster and now as a financial adviser — has been to empower people with the knowledge and confidence to make better financial decisions.

Nadine has a knack for making complex topics easy to understand and her journalistic skill of rapidly absorbing information and distilling it down into what's most important translates well to financial advice.

Having long been a client of enable.me, she can personally attest to the power of working with a financial coach.

Nadine is also a financial columnist for the NZ Herald and hosts a weekly finance podcast 'The Prosperity Project'.
